Disclosure and Release: Both parties may use this interview in part or full for commercial, educational and or promotional purposes. It may be reproduced, distributed and used in future speeches, books and media by both parties or to their assigned. Both parties agree to hold harmless each other from any claims, damages or liability.

The interview has three sections and runs be between 25 and 27 minutes. At anytime, if you need to redo the question, just ask. If you need to take a long pause do so. I can simply edit out the pauses and the first take of the question.

1. EVOLUTION (15 to 18 minutes)

This interview is all about you. It is all positive and other than knowing your favorite book, author and quote should not take any preparation. We will first describe to the listeners what you are currently doing then I will ask a series of questions to find out how you got to where you are today. We need to focus on being conversational.

2. BOTTOM LINE UP FRONT (7 -12 minutes)

1. What type of phone and computer (MAC or PC) do you use?
2. What are some of your favorite technologies which make you more productive?
3. What quote best motivates you?
4. Who is your favorite author and book?

4. TYING IT ALL TOGETHER (5-7 minutes)

1. What do you enjoy doing on your off time?
2. In closing, this is the most important question. For our listener, what is your best advice and most important takeaways from this interview?
3. How can we reach you? (Website, email and/or phone/address)

Thanks; I have truly enjoyed this interview!

One last Question: What is your favorite food?
